HAVE YOU A MAN IN THE

DON'T wave or signal or try to attract the attention of a man marching in formation. He's not allowed to answer or even to look at you-regulations say that in formation marching he must always look are identified. DON'T try to surprise your soldier by dressing in "military fashion"—he sees plenty of uniforms. Above all, don't time up wearing slacks! Wear your prettiest, most feminine clothes—that's the way be wants to see you. DON'T ask a soldier to carry packages or an ambrello. He'll do it, of course, if you ask him to—but it's rousidered manifilary and it's apt to get him into difficulties... partirularly when he has to salute an officer!

DON'T send him anything too big to conreal in his bank or duffle larg. At drilly harracks impection, nothing must show except government property. DO remember the preferred gift is eignrettes...and the favorite is Camel.*

Well then, it's this: in spite of the fact that he's doing the biggest job in the world—the "little things" count for a lot with him. "Little things" like the right eigarette, for

"Lattle things" like the right egarette, for instance. There's a good reason why men in the Army... in the Navy... the Coast Guard, and the Marines prefer Cannel. You see, Cannels are expertly blended from costier tobaccos—tobaccos that are rich in flavor. for lasting onjoyment—tobaccos that give extra mildness, vet are never thin-tasting.

Trust the men in the service to spot the difference! And, of course, that goes for millions of smokers on the "home front," tio. They know that Camels are more pleasing every way. If you're not a Camel smoker now make your next cigarette Camel.

*With men in the Army, Navy, Marines, and the Coast Guard, the favorite cigarette is Camel.
